REVIEWS AND PRAISE

"... solid information, organized. . . The matter-of-fact style is never condescending or alarmist in tone;. . . Explicit black-and-white illustrations lend almost a clinical touch, further moving sexuality away from myths and mistakes. . . good for reports, while the directness of the presentation will appeal to general readers." —School Library Journal

"A book your middle and high school students undoubtedly need. . . forthright, but never titillating. . . excellent book that continually reinforces the theme that sex is really about what goes on above the neck. If you can handle the heat it will generate, you'll be glad the book is so beautifully library bound, because it will be worn to a pulp by students who heed the subtitle."—Library Media Connection

"... list of what can only be called excellent questions. . . cover a remarkable amount of territory with answers that deal with important issues involved in sexual activity. . . both comprehensive and informative." —Science Books & Films
