

Title: Joshua and the City
Author: Joseph F. Girzone
Imprint: Christian/Forum
Publisher: Random House Publishing Group
On Sale Date: March 1, 1995
ISBN: 9780385485692
Format: Trade Paperback
Age Range*: General

BOOK RESUME: JOSHUA AND THE CITY

BOOK SYNOPSIS

An inspirational novel featuring a modern-day Jesus. While in New York he frees a runaway prostitute from her pimp, cures a woman of Alzheimer's disease, finds a rich man to develop a black neighborhood, one good deed after another.

REVIEWS AND PRAISE

"Joshua roams about doing good, helping a mother's drug-addicted son, comforting a dying AIDS patient, battling the evil influences of the occult, fighting Satan in the guise of the mercurial Lucius Fabian, all the while spouting ever higher platitudes like a politician on a bad day." —Kirkus Reviews

"In a world of despairing doubt, Joshua and the City gives the reader hopeful answers that lead toward peace and understanding." —Google Books

RESPONSE TO CHALLENGES

- Book Bans: List of books challenged in schools tracked by Florida Freedom to Read Project

Updated 9.11.2024

Penguin Random House

Contact BannedBooks@penguinrandomhouse.com

Book resumes are publisher created resources intended for use in keeping frequently challenged books on shelves. *Publisher suggested age range covers the wide range of readers publishers envision using the book, whether for independent reading, family sharing, group study, or in other ways. Educators have the best sense of the appropriate range for their diverse learners they work with and understand these ranges vary depending on a book's intended use.